Her boobs ate it?!

there was a peculiar chill in the air, much unlike the warmth May usually brought On that fated day,
How-ever,
and continued falling until it landed at her feet Under normal circumstances, the cell phone, upon escaping the valley of the twin peaks, would have fallen, and that elastic band, at the mouth of those wool panties, managed to capture the falling cellphone On this day, Okita Kyouko had chosen to don her wool knit panties with the loose elastic band,

Her wool panties then cajoled the helpless cell phone into resting in the worst possible place!
